

Coffee, tea and other refreshments are more than just beverages—they energize, comfort and even connect people. Having the right mix of sweeteners can be the deciding factor between ordering a drink and defaulting to water. Maximize the profit opportunity in your beverage program by offering the best selection with the brands customers love.

The Right Mix

72% of operators indicate their customers are looking for better-for-you beverages, especially all-natural options. The beverage market is changing——are you satisfying your guests with the natural sugar options and sugar substitutes they prefer?

- Older generations lean toward lower calorie options while younger generations look for more natural options.
- For home use, people purchase sucralose most often, with stevia as a very close second.²
- Pink packets outsell blue packets by 2:1.2

The Right Brands

Carrying a variety of popular sweetener brands signals quality to guests. We offer a satisfying variety of sought-after sweetener options, from zero-calorie to natural, premium sugar.

Stevia is the #2 sweetener type in retail.²

Stevia In The Raw° is a zero-calorie sweetener made with extract from the stevia plant, native to South America. It meets the preferences of younger and older generations by delivering sweet, natural flavor with zero calories and no artificial colors, flavors, preservatives or sugar alcohols.

Stevia In The Raw is the leading brand away from home.4

- 45% share of the stevia market away from home³
- Gluten free, kosher and vegan certified

Sugar In The Raw® has an 80% share of turbinado sugar in away from home and outsells the nearest competitor by nearly 4 to 1.º

Premium Turbinado Sugar is natural sugarcane that is cut and spun into large, crunchy golden crystals with rich, natural flavor. This premium sweetener demonstrates quality to loyal followings and elevates the everyday.

Sugar In The Raw turbinado cane sugar is the #1 brand of turbinado sugar in retail and away from home.²

- On-trend, desirable sweetener
- Distinctive taste, texture, and large golden crystals
- Gluten free, kosher, and vegan certified
- Non-GMO Project® Verified*

*Non-GMO Project° is a registered trademark of The Non-GMO Project

Sugar In The Raw Organic White° is pure organic cane sugar. It is never bleached and less processed than ordinary refined white sugar, allowing the crystals to retain their authentic sugar cane taste and natural color.

Offer a Simple, Elevated Experience with Sugar In The Raw Organic White Cane Sugar

- USDA Organic
- Natural, unbleached and vegan
- Non-GMO Project® Verified*
- IBD EcoSocial All Fair Certified
